

Jesus does not want to confound the enemies of the Church.
He cries over the painful wounds which are in Her body.

I was praying blessed Jesus to confound the enemies of the Church.
And my always lovable Jesus, in coming, told me:

“My daughter, I could confound the enemies of the Holy Church, but I don’t want to. If I did so, who would purge my Church?”

The members of the Church,
- and especially those who occupy positions and heights of dignity, have their eyes dazzled.

And they blunder a great deal, reaching the point of
- protecting the false virtuous and
- oppressing and condemning the true good.

This grieves Me so much
- to see those few true children of mine under the weight of injustice.
Those children
- from whom my Church must rise again and
- to whom I am giving much grace to dispose them to this...

I see them placed with their backs to the wall, and bound to prevent their step.
This grieves Me so much, that I feel I am all fury for their sake!

Listen my daughter,

I am all sweetness, benign, clement and merciful.
So much so, that because of my sweetness I enrapture hearts.

But I am also strong, as to be able to crush and reduce to ashes those
- who not only oppress the good, but
- who reach the point of preventing the good which they want to do.

Ah! you cry over the secular.
And I cry over the painful wounds which are in the body of the Church.

These grieve Me so much as to surpass the wounds of the secular
Because they
- come from the side from which I did not expect it, and
- induce Me to make the secular rail against them.”
