

Pact between Jesus and the soul.
How an act can only be called perfect when the Divine Will reigns in it.

“My daughter, we must make a pact
- that you must do nothing without Me,
- and I must do nothing without you.”

And I: ‘My Love, it is beautiful, I like this pact – “to do nothing without You”.
And when You do not come, what shall I do?
So, I must remain idle and without doing anything
And then You place your Will in me, and I am unable to will anything but what You want.
So, You will always win, and will do whatever You want - and without me.’

And Jesus, all goodness, resumed His speaking:
“My daughter, when I do not come, you must not remain without doing anything – no, no.
You must continue doing
- what we have done together
- what I have told you that I want you to do.
This is not doing things without Me.
Because it has already passed between Me and you.
And it remains as if you were always doing it together with Me.

And besides, don't you want Me to always win?

The winning of your Jesus is your gain.
So, if you win, you lose. If you lose, you win.

However, be certain that I will do nothing without you.
This is why I placed in you my Will,
and, with It, in my Light, my Sanctity, my Love, my Strength

So that, if you want my Light, my Sanctity, my Love, my Strength, you may go in them and take the Light you want,
and the Sanctity, the Love, the Strength that you want to possess.

How beautiful it is to see you possess my dominions, which make Me reach the extent of doing nothing without you.

These pacts I can only make with one in whom my Will dominates and reigns.”
