

The Doctrine on the Divine Will is the purest, the most beautiful.
Through it the Church will be renewed and the face of the earth transformed.

(...) But in my all-seeingness,

I see that these writings will be for my Church like a new sun which will rise in Her midst.

And drawn by its blazing Light, creatures will apply themselves in order

- to be transformed into this Light and
- to become spiritualized and divinized,

in such a way that, as the Church will be renewed, they will transform the face of the earth.

The doctrine on my Will is the purest, the most beautiful,

- not subject to any shadow of the material or of interest,
- both in the supernatural and in the natural order.

Therefore, like sun, it will be

- the most penetrating, the most fecund, and
- the most welcomed and appreciated.

And being Light, of its own It will make itself understood and will make its way.

It will not be subject to doubts or suspicions of error.

And if some word is not understood, it will be because of too much Light which,

- eclipsing the human intellect,

will not allow them to comprehend the whole fullness of the Truth.

However, they will find not a word which is not Truth.

At the most, they will not be able to comprehend it fully.

Therefore, in view of the good which I see, I push you to neglect nothing in writing.

One saying, one effect, one simile about my Will can be like beneficial dew upon souls,

- just as dew is beneficial on the plants after a day of burning sun,
- or like a pouring rain after long months of drought.

You cannot understand all the Good, the Light, the Strength contained in each Word.

But your Jesus knows it, and knows the ones whom It must serve and the Good it must do.”

Now, as He was saying this, He showed me a table in the middle of the Church, and all the writings about the Divine Will placed upon it.

Many venerable people surrounded that table and became transformed into light and divinized

And as they walked, they communicated that Light to whomever they encountered.

Then Jesus added:

“You will see this great Good from Heaven,

when the Church will receive this celestial Food, which will strengthen Her and make Her rise again in Her full triumph.”
