

“Jesus is very pleased with the souls who are detached from everything.”

“I am so very pleased with the souls who are detached from everything,

- not only in the affect,
- but also in the effect,
that as they keep stripping themselves,
my Light keeps investing them.

And they become just like crystals,
- such that the light of the sun finds no impediment to penetrate inside of them,
unlike buildings and other material things.”

Then He added:

“Ah! They think that they strip themselves.
But instead, they come to be clothed not only with spiritual things, but also with corporal ones.
Because my Providence has a care, all particular and special, for these detached souls.
My Providence covers them everywhere.

It happens that they have nothing, but they possess everything.”

After this, we withdrew from the confessor.
And we found many religious people who seemed all to have their goals set
- on working for their interest.

Passing through their midst, Jesus said:

“Woe – woe to one who works for the purpose of gaining money!
You have already received your recompense.”
