

The Immaculate Conception. The test which the Virgin Mary had to undergo.

“My daughter, no one can be acceptable to Me without the test.
Had there been no test, I would have had a mother slave, not free
And slavery does not enter our Relations and our Works, nor can it take part in our free Love.

My Mama had Her first test from the very first instant of Her Conception.
As soon as She had Her first act of reason, She knew Her human will on one hand, and the Divine Will on the other, and was left free to adhere to one of those two wills.
Without losing one instant, knowing the whole extent of the sacrifice She was making, She gave Us Her will, without wanting to know it ever again, and We gave Her Ours as gift.

And in this exchange of donation of wills on both sides, all the qualities, the beauties, the prodigies, the immense seas of grace poured into the Immaculate Conception of the most privileged of all creatures. It is always the will that I am used to test. All sacrifices, even death, without a free will, would nauseate Me, and would attract not even a glance of mine.

But do you want to know

- what the greatest prodigy was which We operated in this creature, so holy, as well as
- the greatest heroism of this creature, so beautiful, which no one – no one will ever be able to equal?

She began Her life with Our Will, and so did She continue it and complete it. So, it can be said

- that She completed from the point at which She started, and
- that She started from the point at which She completed

And Our greatest Prodigy was that in each one of Her thoughts, words, breaths, heartbeats, movements and steps, Our Will poured upon Her.

And She offered Us the heroism of a thought, of a word, of a breath, of a heartbeat, divine and eternal, operating within Her.

This raised Her so high that what We were by nature, She was by Grace.

All of Her other prerogatives, Her privileges, Her very Immaculate Conception, would have been an absolute nothing compared to this great prodigy.

Even more, this is what confirmed Her and rendered Her stable and strong during all of Her life.

My continuous Will, pouring upon Her, made Her share in the Divine Nature.

Her continuous receiving It rendered Her strong in love, strong in sorrow - distinct from everyone.

It was Our Will operating in Her

- that drew the Word upon earth,
- that formed the seed of the divine fecundity to be able to conceive a Man and God without human intervention, and
- that made Her worthy to be the Mother of Her very Creator.

This is why I always insist on my Will - because

- It preserves the soul beautiful, as she came out of Our hands, and
- It raises her as the original copy of her Creator.

As many great works and sacrifices as one might do, if my Will is not present in them,

- I refuse them,- I do not recognize them - it is not food for Me.
- And the most beautiful works, without my Will, become food
- for the human will, - for self-esteem, and - for the greed of the creature.”
