

Firmness. In my Works I never change.
Whatever the events might be, once it is done, it is done forever.”

Daughter,
this is the nature of true love – of the operating as God:
- firmness,
- and not to withdraw at the cost of any sacrifice.

This firmness in my Works is my victory and the greatest glory of mine

And this is the sign to know whether the creature operates for God: firmness.

The soul looks no one in the face
- neither pains, nor herself, nor self-esteem, nor creatures even though it may cost her life.

She looks only to God, for love of Whom she set herself to operate.
And she feels victorious in offering the sacrifice of her life for love of Him.

Not being firm is of the human nature and of the human way of operating.
Not being firm is the operating of passions, and with passion.
Mutability is weakness, it is cowardice, and it is not of the nature of true love.

Therefore, firmness must be the guide in operating for Me.

So, in my Works I never change.
Whatever the events might be, once it is done, it is done forever.”
