

Neither aridities, nor temptations, nor defects enter the Divine Will.

Having spoken to someone about the Will of God, it had slipped from my mouth that if one is in the Will of God and feels aridity, one would still be at peace.

Now, as I was in my usual state, blessed Jesus corrected me, telling me:

My daughter, be very careful when you speak about my Will.
Because my Will is so happy that It forms Our very beatitude.
While the human will is so unhappy, that if it could enter Ours, it would destroy Our happiness and would wage war against Us.

Therefore, neither aridities, nor temptations, nor defects, nor restlessness, nor coldness enter my Will.
Because my Will is light and contains all possible tastes.
The human will is nothing but a little drop of darkness, all full of disgusts.

So, if the soul is already inside my Will, before she enters
- at the contact with my Will,
Its light dissolved the little drop of darkness in order to be able to have it within Itself.

Its heat dissolved coldness and aridities.
Its divine tastes removed the disgusts, and my happiness freed her from all unhappinesses.”
