

Meditate constantly in your mind on all the Truths I have taught you,
Then enter into your interior, unite yourself with Me.

I was thinking:

‘How bad I have become – yet, the Lord does not correct me.
He does not scold me.’

While I was thinking of this, I felt Him move in my interior, telling me:

“My daughter, keep walking, keep walking...

If I am goodness, mercy, sweetness,

I am also justice, strength, power.

If I saw you go backward or commit voluntary defects

- after the so many graces I have given you,

you would deserve to be struck by lightning.

And indeed I would strike you.

If I do not do it, you yourself can understand why.

And if I do not always speak to you -

- meditate constantly in your mind on all the truths I have taught you,

- then enter into your interior, unite yourself with Me.

And I will always be with you, operating interiorly.”
