

The Kingdom of the Divine Will is coming to reign on earth. This divine Wind will be so strong that He will purify the unhealthy air of the human will and of all the sad things of these times. This Kingdom will be called the Kingdom of the Celestial Empress.

My mind is always returning in the interminable sea of the Divine Volition.
This Volition murmurs and smiles with love at the creature and wants her smiles of love.
He does not want that she remains behind and doesn't make her pairing.

Not to do that which the Divine Will does while one lives in Him, is almost impossible
But who can say what the creature feels in this Divine sea? The purity of his kisses, his chaste embraces that infuse Celestial peace, Divine life, such fortitude as to conquer God himself.

Oh! How I would love that everyone might experience, might come to live in this sea, certainly they would never go out anymore. But while I thought this I said to myself: but who knows who will see when this Kingdom of the Divine Fiat will come? Oh! How difficult it seems.
And my beloved Jesus, making his short visit said to me:

“My daughter, and yet it will come. You measure in a human way the sad times that involve the present generations. And therefore it seems difficult to you. But the Supreme Being holds the Divine measures, which are so very large. That which impossible for a human is easy for Us.”

We should only send an impetuous Wind. This divine Wind will be so strong that He will purify the unhealthy air of the human will and of all the sad things of these times.

It will make of it a heap and will disperse it as dust invested by this impetuous wind.
Our Wind will be so strong, impetuous that it will not be easy to resist him.
More so because his waves will be full of Graces, of Light, of Love that will drown the human generations. They will feel themselves transformed.

How many times doesn't a strong wind remove (an) entire city and transports men, trees, earth, water, to other places and perhaps also distant, without them being able to oppose it?
More so our Divine wind, wanted, decreed by Us with our creative Strength.

And then there is the Queen of Heaven that prays continually with her empire - that the Kingdom of the Divine Will may come upon the earth.

And when have we ever denied Her anything?
Her prayers are impetuous winds for Us, so that We cannot resist her..
She holds the right to impetrate it, because she possessed Him on earth and possesses Him in Heaven.

Hence as possessor she can give that which is hers.
So much so that this Kingdom will be called the Kingdom of the Celestial Empress.
She will be a Queen in the midst of her children on earth.
She will put at their disposition her seas of Graces, of Sanctity, of Power.
She will put to flight all enemies. She will raise her children in her womb, she will hide them in her Light, cover them with her Love, feed them with her own hands, with the food of the Divine Will.

What won't this Mother and Queen of this Kingdom not do for her children and for her people?
She will give unheard of Graces, surprises never seen, miracles that will shake Heavens and earth. We will give Her complete freedom, because she will form for Us the Kingdom of our Will upon the earth. She will be the Guide, the true model.
The Kingdom of the Sovereign Celestial Queen will be pure.
Therefore you also pray together with Her. And in her time you will obtain what you ask for.”
