

Third sorrowful Mystery - The crowning with thorns

The 24 Hours of the Passion – Hour 17

My child, courage,
do not miss anything of what I suffered.
Be attentive to my teachings.
I have to redo man in everything.

Sin

- has removed the crown from him, and
 - has crowned him with opprobrium and with confusion.
- So he cannot stand before my Majesty.

Sin has dishonored him, making him lose any right to honors and to glory.

This is why I want to be crowned with thorns

- to place the crown on man's forehead, and
- to return to him all rights to every honor and glory.

Before my Father,
my thorns will be reparations and voices of defense for many sins of thought,
- especially pride.
And for each created mind they will be voices of light and supplication,
- that they may not offend Me.

Therefore, unite yourself to Me, and pray and repair together with Me." (...)

"My child,
these thorns say that I want to be constituted King of each heart.
To Me belongs every dominion.
Take these thorns and prick your heart.
Let everything that does not belong to Me come out.

And then leave one thorn inside,
- as the seal that I am your King, and
- to prevent any other thing from entering into you.

Then, go through every heart, and pricking them,
- let all the fumes of pride and the rottenness which they contain come out.
And constitute Me King of all." (...)
