

Day 24 - A Cruel Tyrant. Little King Jesus is brought by His Mama and by Saint Joseph into Egypt, a foreign Land, as poor exiled Ones. Return to Nazareth.

My child, what sorrow! The One who has come to give life to all, and to bring into the world the new era of peace, of happiness, of grace - they want to kill Him!

What ingratitude, what perfidy!

Ah! my child, to what extent the blindness of the human will reaches!

To the extent of becoming ferocious, of tying the hands of the very Creator, and of making itself the master of the One who created it...

As soon as man withdrew from the Divine Will, he broke off with his Creator.

Everything had been made by God on earth – everything was His.

And man, by not doing the Divine Will, lost all rights

And it can be said that he had no place on which to put his feet.

So, he became the poor exiled one, the pilgrim who could not possess a permanent place...

Because the whole magnificence of Creation was destined by God for those who would do His Will and live in Its Kingdom.

All others, if they manage to take anything, are the true petty thieves of their Creator.

And with reason: they do not want to do the Divine Will, and want the goods that belong to It!

In the midst of the sorrow for human ingratitude, the Divine Fiat gave Us immense joys and happinesses All Creation made feast for the sweet Baby.

The earth became green again and flowery under our steps, to give homage to its Creator.....

My child, since the Divine Will was in Us, We had power over everything.

So we arrived in Egypt. And after a long period of time, the Angel of the Lord told Saint Joseph that we should return to the house of Nazareth, because the cruel tyrant had died. So we repatriated to our native lands.

Now, Egypt symbolizes the human will – a land full of idols.

And wherever the little Child Jesus passed,

He knocked down these idols and cast them into hell.

How many idols the human will possesses : idols

-of vainglory,

-of self-esteem and

-of passions that tyrannize the poor creature.

Therefore, be attentive. Listen to your Mama.

I would make any sacrifice so that you would never do your will anymore.

And I would lay down even my life to give you the great Good of living always in the bosom of the Divine Will.
