

The Celestial Queen is the Bearer of Jesus. The Supreme Being entrusted to her the Eternal Word, Who incarnated Himself in her bosom.

(...) the Sovereign Queen all goodness and tenderness said to me:

“My dear daughter, you should know that I am the bearer of Jesus.

This was a Gift that the Supreme Being entrusted to me.

And when he was certain that I held the Grace, Love, Power and the Divine Will himself, in order to keep Him guarded, defended, loved, then he made for me the consignment of the Gift, that is :

the Eternal Word, Who incarnated Himself in my bosom.

The Supreme Being said to me:

‘Our daughter,

We make for you the great Gift of the Life of the Son God, so that

- you are proprietress of Him and

- you give Him to whom you want.

However love Him, keep Him defended, do not leave Him ever alone to whomever you give Him to,

- in order to make up for if they don't love him,

- in order to make reparation to him if they offend him,

you will do in a way that He lacks nothing

- for the Decency, for the Sanctity, for the Purity that is appropriate to Him,

Be attentive, it is the greatest Gift that We make you.

And We give you the power of bilocating Him how many times you want, so that who wants Him, can receive this great gift and possess Him.’

Now this Son is mine, He is my Gift.

And as mine I know his loving secret, his anxieties, his longings.

So much so, that he cries and with repeated hiccups He says to me:

‘My Mama give me to souls, I want souls;’

I want that which He wants, I can say that I sigh and cry together, because I want that everyone possesses my Son.

But I must put his Life in security, the great Gift that God entrusted me.
