

The first kiss, the outpouring of Love between the Mother and the Son.

I was making my rounds in Creation and Redemption.
My little intelligence stopped when my charming little Child, in the Act of leaving the maternal womb threw himself in the arms of the celestial Mother.

In his desire to manifest his first effusion of Love,
He wrapped his little arms around his Mother's neck and kissed her.

The divine Queen also felt the need to make her first outpouring of Love towards the divine Child.
She returned his kiss with so much maternal affection that her heart seemed to burst from her chest.

These were the first outpourings between the Mother and her Son.

I said to myself: "Who knows how many Goods were contained in this effusion!"

My sweet Jesus, appeared to me in the form of a little Child embracing his Mother, and He said to me:

My daughter,
how much I felt the need to manifest this effusion towards my Mother.

In fact, everything that was done by our Supreme Being
- was only an outpouring of Love.

In the Virgin Queen
I centralized all the outpouring of Love that We had in Creation

Because, as my Divine Will was in her, my Mother was able
- to receive, with my Kiss, such a great outpouring, and
- to return It to Me.

In fact, only the creature who lives in my Divine Will centralizes in her
- the continuous Act of the whole Creation, and
- the attitude to return It to God.

To the one who possesses my Divine Will
- I can give everything and she can give everything back to Me.
