

Today the feast of the Assumption is the most beautiful feast, most sublime, the greatest, in which We remain more glorified, loved and honored

Today, the day of the Assumption is celebrated for the first time
- the Divine Will working in the Sovereign and Lady.

While my mind swam in the sea of the Divine Volition, I stopped in the act in which my Queen Mama was assumed into heaven. How many wonders, how many surprises of love!.

And my sweet Jesus, wanting to speak of his Celestial Mother, all festive, said to me:

“My blessed daughter, today the feast of the Assumption is the most beautiful feast, most sublime, the greatest, in which We remain more glorified, loved and honored.

Heaven and earth are invested with an unusual joy never experienced, the angels and saints feel invested by seas of new joys and new happiness.
And they extol with new hymns the Sovereign Queen, who in her empire reigns over everyone and gives joy to everyone.

Today is the feast of feasts, and the only and new one, that is not repeated anymore.
Today, the day of the Assumption is celebrated for the first time
- the Divine Will working in the Sovereign and Lady.

The wonders are enchanting.

In her every little act, even in her breath, in her motion one sees so many of our divine lives that flow as so many kings in her acts.

More than radiant suns they inundate her, surround her, embellish her, and make her so beautiful, that she forms the enchantment of the celestial regions.

Does it seem little to you that

- every breath, motion, work and suffering of her.
were filled with so many of our divine lives?

This is truly the great prodigy of the work of my Will in the creature,

-to form so many of our divine lives for how many times it entered into the motion, into the acts of the creature.

Since my Fiat possesses the bilocative, and repetitive virtue without ever ceasing that which it does, hence the great Lady feels in herself multiplied these divine Lives.

They extend continuously all the seas of Love, of Beauty, of Power, of infinite Wisdom.

“You must know that she possesses so many of our divine Lives

-that as she entered into heaven she populated the whole celestial region.

Not being able to contain them they fill the whole creation.

So that there is no point where don't flow

-her seas of love, of power and

-so many of our Lives from which she is the possessor and the Queen.

We can say, she dominates us and We dominate her.

And re-pouring herself into our immensity, power and love,
she populated all our attributes

- with her acts and
- with the so many of our divine Lives that she had conquered.

So that from anywhere and everywhere we feel ourselves loved, glorified,
-inside and outside of ourselves,
-from within created things,
-in the most remote hide-aways, by this celestial creature and by one who lives from our own divine Life that our Fiat has formed in her.

Oh, Power of our Volition!

Only you can make so many prodigies even to create so many of our Lives
-in one who lets You dominate, in order to make Us loved and glorified as we merit it and want it!

Therefore she can give her God to everyone, because she possesses Him,
- without losing any one of our divine Lives,
when she sees the creature disposed to receive our Life.

Since she holds the virtue of reproducing another divine Life
-from within our Life that she possesses - in order to give it to whom she wants.
