

To choose one own self represses Grace and renders God a slave.

As I was in my usual state, blessed Jesus would not come
And I was tormented by the pain of His Privation.
And not only by this, but by the thought that my state of victim might no longer be Will of God. I seem to have become nauseating before God, worthy only of being abhorred.

Then, while I was thinking of this,
He came for just a little and He told me:

“My daughter,
one who chooses his own self, even for one instant,
-represses Grace,
-becomes the master of himself,
-and renders God a slave.”

Then He added:

“The Will of God makes one take possession of God
Obedience is the key
-to open the door and enter this possession.”

Having said this, He disappeared.
