

The Virgin Mary was a little light and she became a Sun.
She possessed the kingdom of my Will.”

“My daughter,
the Immaculate Mary was the little light of the human lineage,
-because the human earth gave origin to her.

But she was always daughter of the Light because not one stain entered into this Light.
But do you know
-where all her greatness is,
-who gave her Sovereignty,
-who formed the seas of light, of sanctity, of grace, of love, of beauty, of power, inside and outside of Her?

My daughter, man doesn't ever know how to do great things, nor how to give great things,

So the Celestial Queen would have remained the little light,
-if She might had not put aside her volition, that is the little light, and
-if not making herself invested by my Divine Volition, by dissolving her little light in Him, which is not a little light but an interminable Sun, that investing her completely,
- formed seas of Light around Her, of Grace, of Sanctity.

He embellished her so much as to render her all beautiful, with all the tints of Divine Beauties, as to enamor He who had created her.

Her Immaculate Conception, for however beautiful and pure, it was always a little light.
And it would not have held neither power, nor sufficient light in order to be able to form seas of Light and of Sanctity,
-if our Divine Volition might not have invested the little light in order to convert it into sun.
-if the little light, that was the will of the Celestial Sovereign Lady, would not have been dissolved freely in the Sun of the Divine Fiat in order to be dominated by Him.

This was the great Miracle : the Kingdom of my Divine Will in Her.

So, all she did became light.
She fed herself with Light. Nothing went forth from Her that was not Light, Because she held the Sun of my Divine Volition in her Power.
She could draw all the light she wanted from my Volition.

The property of the light is to diffuse itself, to dominate, to fecundate, to illuminate, to warm.
Behold therefore the heights of the Sovereign Queen!
*With the Sun of my Divine Will that she possessed, she diffused herself in God.
She dominated Him, subdued Him to descend upon the earth.
She remained fecundated with the Eternal Word and illuminated and re-warmed mankind.*

One can say that she did everything in virtue of the Kingdom of my Volition that she possessed.
All the other prerogatives can be called ornaments of this Queen Mother.
But the substance of all her goods, her height, beauty, greatness and Sovereignty was:
that she possessed the kingdom of my Will.

Therefore of Her they say the lesser, and of the greater they don't speak a word. This means that of my Will they know little or nothing, therefore they are almost all mute for Him.”
